KIT #1

Be a Cartoonist!

(or look just like one.)

Everything you need to start tooning up is in this kit!

A plastic overlay. Use it to line up eyes, mouths and so on, so you can draw them on the characters. Use it with your Toon Tracing Booklet or other sheets of paper.

Simply start with a pencil. Have an eraser handy, because everyone makes misteaks... er, mistakes.

This instruction booklet will make you wealthy beyond your wildest dreams, or maybe not, but it will teach you to draw funny pictures.

Save face, race to trace, and keep up the pace, with the Toon Tracing Booklet!

TOON TIP

For you younger kids, you may have fun just coloring the backgrounds!

Draw Fred Flintstone™

This is the letter V on it's side, ears to you!

My eyes look like little dinosaur eggs.

My nose is just above the middle of my face.

I've got to hand it to you, if you give me 4 fingers.

Get a load of my big cheeks.

I think I'm missing something in this neck of the woods- a neck!

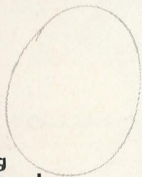
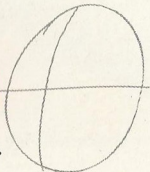
Now you grab your paper and do it!

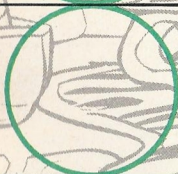
1 Draw a big dinosaur egg to start Fred's head.


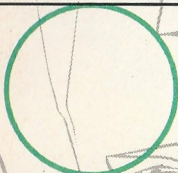
2 Divide and conquer.

3 The eyes and nose have it. Now draw them in.

4 Now add mouth and ears.


5 Draw big cheeks and hair. Yabba Dabba do it!

TOON TIP The easy way: Use your plastic overlay for ideas. Copy Fred's nose, mouth, and eyes onto his head. Give him different expressions.




Draw ALL OF Fred
Size him up!
Fred is 2 ⅔
heads tall.
Fred's head and his torso are of almost equal height.
TOON TIP
Don't sweat it if it's too tough.
Just color the background.

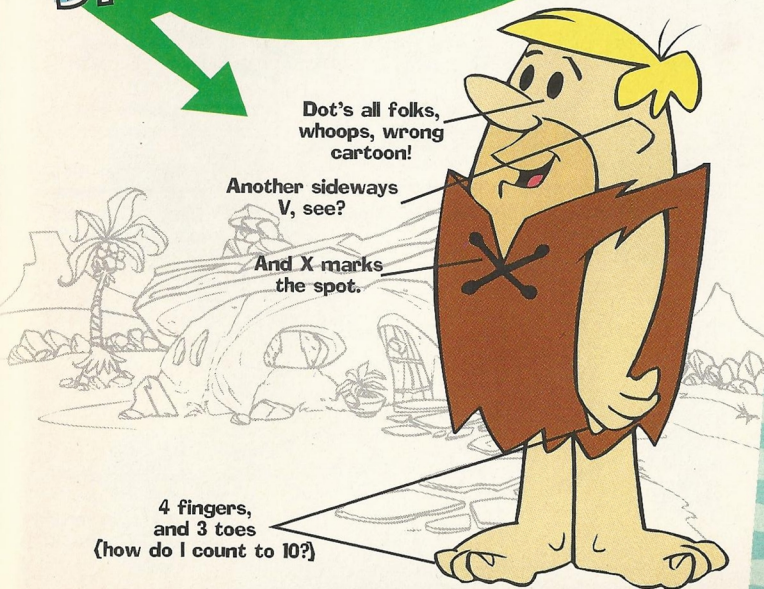
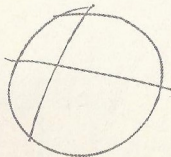
Now go for the finish!

TOON TIP

Grab a piece of paper and follow the Three Secrets Of Cartooning:
1.Practice 2.Practice 3.Practice

Draw Barney Rubble!™


1 Draw a big dinosaur egg to start Barney's head.

2 Draw light lines and split into 4 parts.


3 Add Barney's proboscis and oculi. (That's nose and eyes to you.)

4 Sketch in his trap and flaps. (That's mouth and ears, right?)

5 Flop his mop on top.

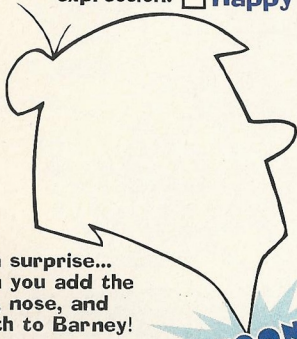
Match these faces with the word that describes Barney's expression: ☐ Happy ☐ Sleepy ☐ Angry
It's a surprise... when you add the eyes, nose, and mouth to Barney!
TOON TIP
Keep a daily diary in comic book form.


See Barney Run!
1
Start simple, Bedrock wasn't built in a day!
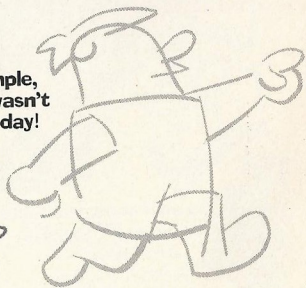
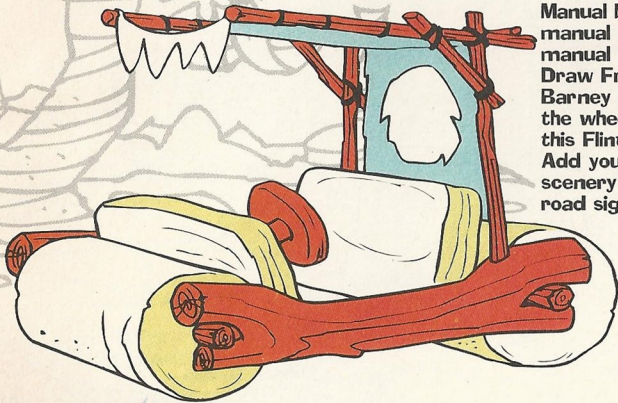
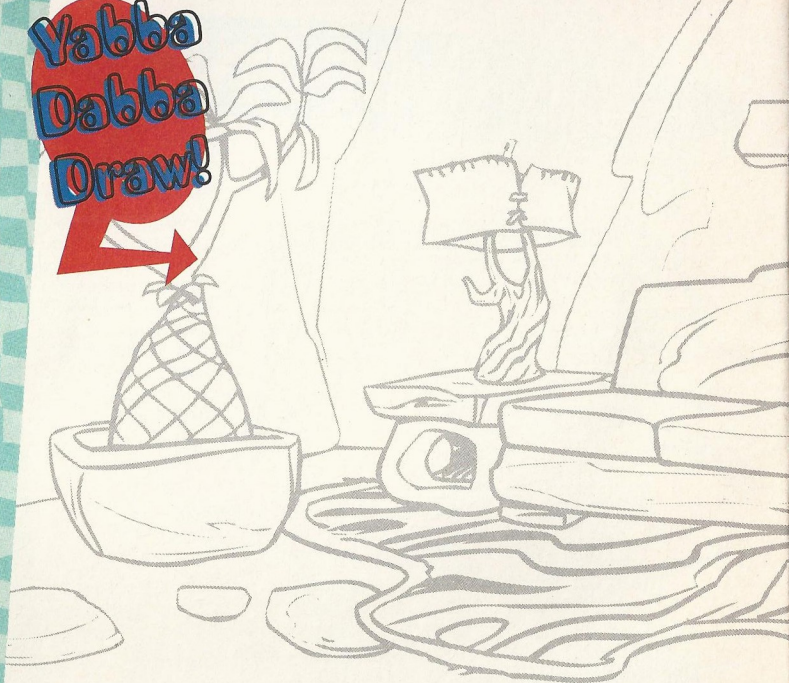
Build "Barn."
3
Add the finishing touches, Pablo Picasstone!


WHO'S DRIVING?

Manual brakes, manual steering, manual everything. Draw Fred or Barney behind the wheel of this Flintmobile! Add your own scenery and road signs.


TOON TIP For fun and practice, take a daily newspaper comic strip and write and draw a new ending!


Now that you're an expert, draw Fred and Barney in this scene.

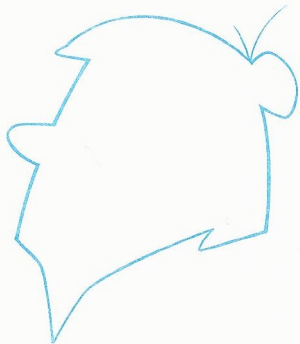
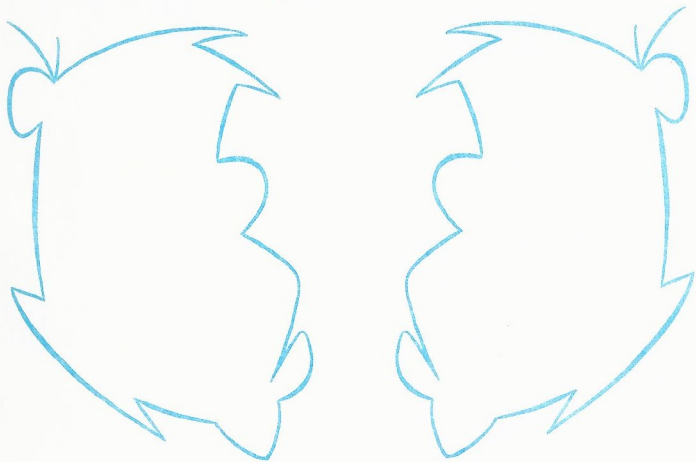
DIRECTIONS: Creating cartoon characters is a blast, and it's easy too, using this book and your plastic overlay!

1. Place the plastic overlay on a cartoon you want to finish.
2. Choose features from the overlay. Flip overlay to face features in the right direction.
3. Place the overlay under the page and trace what you see through the paper.
4. Use the overlay to draw characters on your own.

#1

"Where's My Face?!" Create some totally wild expressions for Barney, using your overlay and your imagination!


"Where's My Nose?!" Quick! Find some noses for Fred on your overlay. Then create the rest of his funny face!


No Rules, Just Fun! Cartooning is creative! Start with your overlay and cartooning book for ideas. Then check out magazines, comic books, newspapers – even cereal boxes – for cool things to trace. Draw Fred and Barney…or…dream up your own characters!
